

*“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”*

---

Stephanie Scharf Appointed to ABA Presidential Commission on Diversity

Firm partner Stephanie Scharf, has been appointed as Advisor to the American Bar Association’s new Presidential Commission on Diversity and Inclusion 360. Ms. Scharf has been asked to focus on the Commission’s implicit bias projects. The Commission was formed in August 2015 by ABA President Paulette Brown, with the mission of reviewing and analyzing diversity and inclusion in the legal profession, the judicial system and the American Bar Association with a goal of developing sustainable action plans. Read the full story by clicking here.