Partner Ted Banks Speaks at CLE Webinar

Partner Ted Banks was a featured speaker at a webinar on April 21, Designing and Implementing Competition Law Policy and Training. This CLE webinar provided guidance to business counsel regarding competition law practices in business transactions, particularly for sales personnel training and business guidance in communications. The panel discussed ways to meaningfully convey the significance of compliance, provide guidance to different types of employees, and maintain awareness of the importance of compliance within an organization. The program was presented by Strafford Publications.
