

*“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”*

---

Aaron Schildhaus Joins the Firm as Counsel

We are pleased to announce that Aaron Schildhaus has joined the Firm as Counsel, specializing in corporate counseling and transactions with a strong emphasis on international matters. Aaron Schildhaus represents corporations, NGO's, governments and businesses with respect to structural and transactional matters in the US and internationally. He evaluates political and legal risks, assists with the setup of new businesses, and helps expand business operations in new countries and markets, whether stand-alone or as joint ventures, mergers or acquisitions. He also assists with divestitures and all manners of civil litigation and dispute resolution in the US and abroad. Mr. Schildhaus has worked closely with the World Bank, and on transactions with the Export-Import Bank. Mr. Schildhaus was in-house counsel for PepsiCo, Inc., and has lived and worked in Argentina and France. He speaks fluent French and is conversant in Spanish and German. For more information, please see Aaron Schildhaus' bio here.