

“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”

Partner Ted Banks Chaired ABA Panel on Protecting Whistleblowers From Retaliation

On September 14, Ted Banks chaired a panel at the American Bar Association Business Law Section Annual Meeting, Restoring Trust in Your Hotline: Protecting Whistleblowers from Retaliation after Wells Fargo. The panel discussed both the legal implications of hotlines and the ethical obligations of attorneys to ensure that there is an effective compliance program in place. For a copy of Ted’s outline from the program, please contact tbanks@scharfbanks.com.