

“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”

Ted Banks Speaks on "Discrimination in Price and Promotions"

Ted Banks spoke on "Discrimination in Price and Promotions" as part of the Practising Law Institute Antitrust Institute 2013 program that was held in Chicago on June 10-11. The panel discussed the basic elements of the price discrimination violation, the concept of injury in primary, secondary, and tertiary lines of competition, the different rules applicable to advertising and promotional allowances, and new developments in the courts and FTC. For more information go to www.pli.edu.