Deirdre Fox Interviewed in Voyage Chicago “Thought Provokers” Series

Partner Deirdre Fox was recently featured in Voyage Chicago’s “Thought Provokers” series where she discusses balancing art and the law. The series celebrates the artistic soul of Chicago. Ms. Fox focuses her art on environmental issues of sustainability and reuse. Her art installations were recently featured at Mana Contemporary in downtown Miami. The colorful displays drew attention to the near-permanent nature of what is considered disposable. Ms. Fox’s work was also recently featured in the Evanston and Vicinity Biennial Art Exhibition.

In the interview Ms. Fox discussed her personal journey of integrating her art and legal careers. She addresses the challenges related to “managing in a world of competing demands.” To read the full article, please click here.
