

*“Advice and counsel that is concise, timely,
on-point and cost-effective.”*

Moon Meals Appoints Scharf Bank Marmor’s Rhonda Coleman as General Counsel.

Rhonda Coleman, Attorney at Scharf Banks Marmor, has been appointed General Counsel of Moon Meals. LaForce Baker, Founder and CEO of Moon Meals stated, “Ms. Coleman provides amazing customer service by applying the law in a way that helps protect and grow our business. We are lucky to have Rhonda on the Moon Meals team!”

Ms. Coleman is a member of the firm’s Corporate and Sports & Entertainment practice groups. Prior to joining the firm she provided transactional legal services to Aon, Caterpillar and Votorantim Cimentos. Ms. Coleman has been a key asset in helping expand Moon Meals’ connection to the food industry network in Chicago and the US to help cultivate its growth. Mr. Baker added, “Rhonda has excelled in drawing up crucial non-disclosure and operating agreements, reviewing contracts, and laying out negotiation terms for key partnerships we have made this year.”

Ms. Coleman states, “I bring genuine belief and strong support of Moon Meals’ mission to provide people with healthy, tasty food options. I also admire the entrepreneurial spirit of Mr. LaForce and how he has used it for the company to this point. I look forward to continuing to negotiate deals on behalf of the company that will protect Moon Meals from liability and reduce its exposure to risk, while still maintaining the flexibility that it needs to grow and succeed.”

For More Information on Moon Meals please visit <https://www.moonmeals.com>.