Sarah Marmor Appointed as a Member of the Chief Network

Partner Sarah Marmor has been selected as a member of Chief, an invitation-only private network designed specifically for senior women leaders. Chief’s mission is to drive more women into positions of leadership — and keep them there. Members must be at the C-suite or similar level and must have a public track record of business impact, influence, and thought-leadership. Ms. Marmor is a Founding Partner of the Firm and Chair of Scharf Banks Marmor’s Employment Practice. Crain’s Chicago Business listed Ms. Marmor as one of the “Notable Gen X Leaders in Law.” In addition to her leadership roles at the Firm, Ms. Marmor serves as the Vice President of the Lawyers for the Creative Arts and is a Trustee and member of the Executive Committee of the Court Theatre as well as Chair of its Producers Circle.

Launched in 2019, Chief has over 3,000 of the most formidable senior leaders in the United States representing over 1,000 companies and a waitlist of more than 8,000. Chief is headquartered in New York City, with chapters in LA, Chicago, Boston and San Francisco.
