Chicago Lawyer Magazine Lauds Firm’s High Quality of Client Service

Scharf Banks Marmor LLC is featured as the cover story in the November 2014 issue of Chicago Lawyer magazine. The Firm was highlighted for the quality of its legal services, its continuing attention to client business needs, and its unique position as the largest certified women-owned firm in Chicago. Partners Stephanie Scharf, Ted Banks and Sarah Marmor spoke about the ways in which they have developed their careers and their approaches to managing legal services.

The Firm’s clients spoke about our approach to client services, including that the Firm offers “very talented people, all of them,” “the quality of the work is unique,” and Scharf Banks Marmor serves as “a model for . . . women- and minority-owned firms.”

The article explains how the Firm has become one of the few sizeable majority women-owned law firms in the country, by hiring experienced and talented lawyers, creating a culture of teamwork and sharing, and networking with and mentoring other women in the profession. The article also highlights the major renovation and expansion of the office that is underway as well as the Firm’s focus on technology as a competitive advantage.
